CHOSHEN MISHPAT IS FOR EVERYONE

Rabbi Yisroel Belsky, Shlita

Rosh Yeshiva, Yeshiva Torah Vodaas

- Can you refuse to pay rent because Landlord is not providing you with services?
- Can you frequent Shop Rite or Pathmark instead of a Kosher Supermarket?
 - Borrowing a car--liability for gas and damage
- According to Halacha, what is unfair advertising and unfair competition?
 - Are there any Halachic implied warranties on products?
 - What items can you borrow from others without their permission?
 - Is it always assur to double park--or are there times it is permitted?
 - Is it assur to park at a meter without putting in a quarter--or is it just a gamble with the City as to whether you will get a ticket?
 - Until what stage can you renege on a deal?
 - Does one ever take a Shavua--an oath--in Beis Din in our times?
 - What is it permitted to say in the course of negotiations?
 - When does "Minhag Hamakom" override the Halacha?
 - Returning items you have damaged to the store when the store officially permits it--should we do it?
 - Saving a seat in a crowded place
 - Opening and closing windows, heat, or air conditioning--who wins?
