Shatnez in a J. Crew Sweater

A blue and white woman's J. Crew (China) sweater, bought at the J. Crew store near Monsey, New York was found to be shatnez. Composed of 2-ply yarns, the dark blue ply was 100% Wool and the white ply was 100% Linen.

The label itself listed 55% Merino Wool, 45% Linen, however the consumer did not discover this until after bringing it home and removing all the tags.
