Shatnez in Men's Wool Pants

Shatnez was discovered in Richard Harris (China) Men's wool pants, currently sold in Jewish stores in Lakewood. It had a blue linen scrap behind the clip.

Frequently Asked Question: Do I have to check wool pants?

Answer: Since pants are rarely found to contain shatnez, Harav Shlomo Miller, Shlita (Toronto) said that one isn't obligated to check pants. However, since shatnez can be found in pants (as in this case) it is appropriate to check wool pants.

Found by: R' Moshe Zisow of the Lakewood Shatnez Test Center.
